News Release

Grey Wolf Consulting announces its expansion with the acquisition of a long-term land lease located in Central Connecticut.

By Brian S. Williams – President / Chief Instructor, Grey Wolf Consulting, LLC

07 August, 2018

East Hampton, CT. – Grey Wolf Consulting announced today that it has secured a long term lease of 20+ acres of land within Colchester, CT. and will begin the expansion and development of additional specialized tactical training services immediately.

Grey Wolf officials expect this acquisition to both improve and expand their current services to their clients by providing them with the ability to expand their current training service offerings without the typical restraints or limitations often imposed by the utilization of other commercial facilities to include schedules and activity restrictions.

In addition to their standard services offered, Grey Wolf will be actively exploring the feasibility of renting the use of its facilities to similar business on a limited basis to include law enforcement and others within the specialized firearms and tactics training industry.

At this time, Grey Wolf will continue with the use of its classroom facilities located in East Hampton, CT. while the development of a on-site classroom is pursued, although it is expected that utilization of this new acquisition for practical training will begin immediately.
